

SATURDAY EVENING, JUNE 14.

(Including Postage):

VOL. 80,.....NO. 10,625

Entered at the Post-Office at New York as second

BRANCE OFFICES: WORLD UPTOWN OFFICE-1267 BROADWAY. between 31st and 32d sts., New York.

BOOKLYN — 359 FULTOW BY. HARLEM —

ROWS Department, 150 East 1257s st.;

Advertisements at 237 East 1157s st.;

Advertisements at 237 East 115th st. PHILADELPHIA, PA. - LEDGER BUILDING, GAR SQUARE.

THE CHILDREN'S FUND.

the charitable hearts of the community. But there should be a more ready, generous response to this call in behalf of the sick children.

This is not a need which appeals to a portion of the good people of New York. Every one, even down to the children, should feel an interest in the sufferings of poor little beings, who cannot help

The frequent contributions from the children show that they have a fellowfeeling for the little ones in the hot, unhealthy quarters of the town. They teach a lesson to their elders by the readiness with which they send their amall savings.

Let this charity be a live, vigorous one. If everybody will do his duty, it will be

MORE MONEY, OR DIRT.

nmissioner Beattre, in his letter to them to be deprived of hearing, even of their the Board of Health, says if he has more own speech. men and more water the Street-Cleaning Department can attain the object " for has a strong conviction that the streets saved, though she herself was severely in-would not be cleaned even with a larger jured by the bursting of the missile.

But no citizen of sound mind will behis predecessor. The expense of doing it is. is, of course, somewhat greater, too. done. We are tired of dirty, bad-smelling streets.

THE PASTEUR METHOD.

Nothing worth being established in any time has ever been brought about without opposition. This is specially the case with startling innovations in medical treatment. It is not surprising, therefore, that the Pasteur method for hydrodeclare that the treatment of PASTEUR and GIBIRR is doing more harm than good, as half the cases are not hydrophobic, and the excitement and talk about them simply makes nervous people fancy they more with quick imagination are deceived into thinking they need treatment.

method cures bydrophobia it is a good.

Yesterday ice sold at a much lower or red flowers in her hair. price. A good amount came into the market, and in one downtown place ice was sold for two dollars a ton less than the prevailing price. This was explained on the ground that the transportation to on the ground that the transportation to this place was so much easier than elsewhere. Unhappily this more reasonable minds more completely on abstruse subjects. but price for ice will not continue. However, their comparative ignorance of the world ing. it is something to have had it cheaper, thus standing them in good stead." even for a day.

One interesting fact in the notices about commencements is that several when saked whether it was a boy or girl, answered; "Both. Tandem." different branches where there was a competition by both sexes. This should be a matter of pride to those women who are trying to advance their sex. Certainly the feminino heart may exult that woman's brains are as strong and good as

A woman coming off a Hamburg steamer wore a very large bustle. Hhe was who may not be willing if he doesn't. She is Miss life. promptly collared by an Inspectress and the silk shaken out of her. How could any woman expect to wear something out of fashion without creating suspicion of some sintater purpose.

Here is Mr. Lo Srasions's summing up Here is Mr. Lo SESSIONS'S SUMMING up of humidity. You can generally set the humid-of the situation after looking over the ity at the next counter. bills left unsigned by the Governor: 'The bread-winners at Albany seem to have had a bad season. It looks as if they would have to go picking gum for a

An effort has been made by the good people of Kiagara Village to prevent the dreadful Ningara hackmen from owning the town. As a natural exhibition, the Jehus rival the Falls.

Mr. Muses foun i a burglar in his wardrobe the other night. What a let-down for Mrs. Muses.

His Doubt Removed.

"That settles it," said a prisoner whom the magistrate sentenced to three mouths ties what?" asked the magistrate.

"I have been troubled whether to go down to Retriston or Margate this Autumn. Now won't have to go to gither."

THE WAYS OF WOMAN FAIR.

Hair is dressed quite low on the neck, in raids pinned up and desse, in the form of ine letter 8. The front hair, on the other hand, is short, aften the curis and crimps being less then an tuch deep.

SATURDAY EVENING, JUNE 14.

While making baby clothes for her tiny niece, recently both as Chief Justice Fuller's cloping daughter. Miss Mildred Fuller composed the "Jolly Wigard," a dainty poem that is going the rounds of the press.

The Poor Infants Want Food.

Clothes and Medicine.

na Avenue A.

Pity would have moved your heart, gentle reader, and sympathy opened your purse could you have looked into the humble kitchen of an Avenue A tenement home

Thursday evening.
On the lonfige, which served as their bed.

sat a young mother with a babe on her knee, and before them whirled a tloy gitl, with her skirts in her hands and a wooden clothespin in her mouth. The pathos and in agony and the flickering lamplight lent a her rough-shod little feet, her dress de-body and her soft cheeks glowing with color

scribing curves of grace about her slender

It was uscless for the woman to call her. The little creature seemed transported.

her helpless mother was weeping, her poor little brother dying and her inhuman father had abandoned her?

Fragile Robert is only seven months old.

He was born under the roof of the tall, dis-mai tenement-house, and for three months has not known a well day or a painless

He has never had a pair of shoes or stock prey on helpless children have racked his Convulsions, measles, pneumonia and fevers have alternated in their tortures, and now the vulturous abscesses that disfigure his face and limbs are rapidly exhausting his

It was to save this little one that a me

Hers was the old story of want, privation.

disappointment and despair. Unable to get had been received from him. We tried to sustain her with the piteou

"Yes," was the sad reply, "that may be

Her grief was infinitely more touching than the sufferings of the child.

little ones. I have a sister who does house work. She has nothing but her wages and to death.

"I can do nothing—absolutely nothing

We find a paltry dollar for the suppy hearted little girl, who unable to get it in her small pink mouth puts it on the crown of her curly head and laughs and dances i

Once it slips down the neck of her dress and the cool, ticklish contact with her warm flesh makes her scream and kick with sportive glee. Arrangements will be made to have the luckless Robert sent to a seaside hospital for a week, but there is no certainty that he will outlive the interim. What h ed and secure for the little mite a whole

For very good reasons Robert's address in withheld. It is, however, on record in Tur with hundreds of others, which may be had

The list of poor sick babies is growing.

If they are to be spared the running gaunt let of disease the demons must be thwarted.

Ferocious fever must be checked, contagior arrested and exposure prevented. Tendency to colds, congestion and inflammafluences; intelligence must best down ignorance and kindly aid moilify the rav-

Kind hearts must pity misfortune and the able support the weak. It is a small task to bear the burdens of others and one which we all owe to humanity.

Robert, in his Avenue A home in the top of a cheerloss tenement-house, is dying; thousands in our city are on the brink of

They have the right to live and they can live and flourish with a little love. a little

If a dollar from you and you and you parents and child, will insure this welfare,

The Sick Babies Fund is as yet a plant of ages of distress.

care and a little help.

can you withhold it?

The Fund is growing, but very slowly.

but with a rapidity that is perfectly appall on the floor.

but it did not prevent him from writing."

not been successful in finding work.

senger came to the office for help. Tears fell upon the tiny baby hands, up-little frame and rasped his delicate nerves.

night.

humor of the scene were most touching. The woman was weeping, the babe writhed

Jean Ingelow Byes with her mother in Kensington, England. She is fifty-five and has never been in fore, Her writing days are over, and she devotes her time and con-Nell Nelson's Visit to Sick Robert siderable money to the parish poor.

Mme. Darmsteter, the historian, has the honor of seeing her delightful book translated into French for the use of school children.

Mrs. A. B. Crane, of Brooks County, Ga. a lady sixty-five years old, raised last year, with the help of one little boy, four bales of cotton, 200 bushels of coru, meat enough 112 SOUTH CTR ST. WASHINGTON - 010 for the year and an abundant supply of oats, 14TH ST.

LONDON OFFICE-32 COCKEPURST., TRAFALthe hiring of a man for one day and the pickthe hiring of a man for one day and the pick-ing of 500 pounds of cotton.

The way in which the contributions made up with an open lacket corraga over a pailor of its own to the wanness of the two chemise of black lace covered with jet outs. faces. Heedless of the mother's sorrow that this worthy purpose is acceptable to Of course, this is placed over a founded and insensible to the suffering of the poor foundation and drawn in at the waist with a jet hand. The tops of the gigot sleeves are round the room in rapturous delight, her made of the jetted lace and the lower part of the silk.

> Mile. Belcesco, a native of Rommania who has won the highest place among the law graduates at Paris, is a tall, handson brunette of twenty-three, and is perfect in Latin and Greek.
>
> She is a warm friend of Carmen Sylvia, the literary Queen of Roumania, and says that when she returns home she will only practise her profession in behalf of women who are too poor to pay counsel fees.

"I don't want money," she is reported to have added, "as my father is wealthy." Two of the daughters of Sir Henry Issaes, the new Lord Mayor of London, are deaf and dumb. But they have been so admirably educated on the oral system in Holland that they can by lip reading understand what goes on at a theatre. They have such bright, intelligent faces that no one could imagine

Marie Therese, the French Sister of Mercy, the story of whose presentation of which the Department is supposed to ex-the Cross of the Legion of Honor at the lands of the Governor of Tonquin was re-It may be a little trying to hear such cently mentioned in this column, was only appeals when the humble taxpayer is dis- twenty years of age when she received her gorging over a million and a quarter for first wound in the trenches of Balaklava. sweeping streets. But this is not the On one occasion a grenade fell into her ambulance; shu selzed it and ran with it has a strong conviction that the streets for 100 yards, and her patients' lives were Simple costumes are the best for car trav Here that it is an impossibility to clean elling. If dresses and wraps are elaborate the streets of New York City. Naturally, the wearer will be quite uncomfortable on a the city is growing, and each new street warm day in the cars, and will look even cleaner has a little more work to do than much more uncomfortable than she really Plain habit-cloth blazers come in nav Give the Department money enough to blue, tan, stone, black, and cream, and do its work, but let us have the work there is an almost endless variety of imported flannels and twilled cloths. These are n fancy designs and are finely trimmed.

iress, says Eugene Ffeld. One can wear alnost any kind of apparel here and not excite comment. I have seen things parading the streets here in London that would create a riot in the States, yet here nobody paid any ttention to them. The more grotesquely a man is clad the less attention he attracts. At phobic subjects should have aroused the theatres one sees remarkable sights, male some adverse criticism. Several doctors and female. The women wear conspicuous costumes. At the Criterion one evening I saw a scrofulous red woman clad in a flery ed gown, the corsage of which was actually plastered over with diamonds-not real diamonds, for very few ladies wear the genuine diamonds to the theatres. In fact. it seems to be quite the thing to blossom out PASTEUR has made converts to his in paste. I have noticed that scrofulous needs is medical care, nutritions food, fresh If his method does good to hydrophobic London; the redder the face, the redder patients then is it good, even if a great the gown. Yet there may be philosophy in many receive it unnecessarily, and many this. I recollect that Mmc. Modieska once are the wants of thousands of little ones, altold me: "Red worn below the face deadens | most as unfortunate and quite as precarious the complexion; worn above the face. as the safety of Robert. A single ten-dollar bill would right the troubles of each of these These things cannot be avoided. A woman wishes to subdue the color in the heightens the complexion. If therefore a infantile martyrs. It would pay for a Pres little evil may accompany a great good cheeks she should wear a red gown or plenty without destroying it. If Pastrun's of red ribbous about her throat; on the wrap and warm finnel; procure wholesome other hand, if she wishes to give her face a foo ertain touch of color let her wear a red hat week of sea air in some suburban sanita-

> The London Daily News comments with true masculine complacency on the success EVENING WOBLD'S book of charity, along of Miss Fawcett in England and Mile. Belcesco in France. Bays this journal: on the application of compassion.

SPOTLETS.

There are fears that the London police will strike. These are always fears that the New York police will strike. An aeronaut is confined in a prison cell. For a man used to footing around in the air this does seem hard. not be willing if " Jucky " Autor marries her, and

The curfew tolls the knell of parting day:
A laded crowd sneaks gunity o er the leaThe fishers because ward glod their weary way.
Concooling lies to tell to you and me.

— Philosog Chro tele.

Boodlers' Chorus - " We're all such jolly good

Fellows. It gives Tom Platt a perfect start to have some fellow propose to ! ball him off.

Now that the young things are let loose from colleges there is hope that this country may be tided over another year

There was a drop in top pasterday. But it went to egain so quick that few scalined it Where the Fit Was

"Bo you had your clothes made by Did you get a good fit?"
my hashaud will have the fit when A Great Inducement iFrom the Spack. | Young Post Are you going to buy a con-

160 DONES ONE BOLLAM

By Hood's Sarsapartills are heard of everyday. Sarsapartills, and was much scratified when i or scrofuls, sail rheum and every form of blood | seemed to help him. He continued to grow bette

Hood's Sarsaparilla of my less book of change ? Suffering France I will buy up the whole suity by 0. I. HOOD a CO., Lowell, Mass. Suffering France I will buy up the whole suity by 0. I. HOOD a CO., Lowell, Mass. Suffering France I will be all druggists. $1; mx for $5. Proposition if you will be all druggists. $1; mx for $5. Proposition if you will be all druggists. $1; mx for $5. Proposition in the proposition of the proposition in the proposition of the proposition promise. Water it with love, let your charity GROWS AND TEER HABITS.

THE WORLD: SATURDAY EVENING, JUNE 11, 1890.

In a fortnight the hot weather will b Send in Your Dimes and Pennies and Swell the Fund.

Send in your contribution that the health cruesde may be established, the free physicians is unched and the poor sick babies saved from the scourges that scopar-dire their lives.

We ask your help in the name of happy little May's unbappy little brother. NELL NELSON.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

The "Evening World" ...

A Dollar from Grace. Washington high in the air. to the Editor : Inclosed please find $1 for the sick babies.

Lester and Alvin Again. Here is 12 cents more from LESTER and ALVIN. From Two Little Boys. To the Editor: .

Yesse find inclosed 20 cents for the sick

Fables. From two little boys, los and BERNE. Accepted with Thanks.

baby brother, small, wiry May whirled Permit us to suggest the appointment of pretty brown curls dancing as merrily as one or two specialists on the eye among THE EVENING WORLD'S COPPS of free physi-THE EVENING WORLD'S COPPS OF THESE DIVISIONS. As there are a great many children with defective eyesight. We shall be pleased to furnish, free of charge, such glasses as may be prescribed by these oculists. We will supply the specialists with pads of prescription blanks. And why shouldn't she dance, even though BCHMIDT & BERLIN, Opticians, 16 East Forty-second street.

WORLDLINGS.

Representative McKinley is a poor man, though he has been thirteen years in Congress. He oc-cupies two small fooms in a hotel. He is a hard and conscientious worker.

ings of his own, he has never had an outing and never drawn one breath of clean, sweet, fresh air in his whole life. All the fils that One of the wealthiest citizens of Galveston, Tex., is a colored man named filtrester. He has a fortune of $350,000, lives in one of the finest residences in town and employs only white services of the lives of the lives

The Finkerton Detective Agency, which was aised in unconscious supplication, and of youth. while the mother talked the feet of the joyous May paced the floor, and her little cork-screw curis leaped fantastically about her head and face. that he is. He is a man of medium height, stout, with a very dark face. There is always a smile on his face, which gives him a prepossessing employment in the city, the husband had gone South, and for five months not a line Edward Grey, the English court tennis player, of three letters. He is a baronet and is therefore punctiliously addressed as "Sir Edward" by his conferres of the tennis court. He is the seccomfort that the father of her little ones had and best court tennis player in the United King-

W. M. Haight does not hate the good, oldfashioned game of croquet, despite Mark Twain's undattering remarks concerning the pastime. than the sufferings of the child.

'A man who worked with him rents the bedroom. But for that, which goes to the 'He is one of the crack mallet performers of the afford admirable forage in Winter, the agent, I would be put in the street with my Union Croquet Club, of Central Park. John Schauer is surer that he owes his gym work. She has nothing but her wages, and but for her goodness we should have starved German Turnverein than to the methods of the ordinary athletic clubs. Though now a member of the New Jerseys, he does not discard the training of his fatherland for the modern "forc-I have been sick myself for three months; the child is badly fed and dying before my very eyes. Even with my health it would take all my strength to mind them both." E. J. Carney is one of its scullers of whom the Institute Boat Club is groud. He is practising now for the Middle States Results.

STOLEN RHYMES.

If I Were You. If I were you, I often say
To those who seem to need advice.
Pd always look before I isaged:
I'd always think it over twice.
And then I'd heave a troubled sigh—
For, after all, I'm only I.

I'd ne'er discuss, if I were you. The failings of my fellow men: I'd think of all their virtues first, And sean my own shortcomings liut though all this is good and true, I am out I; I am not you.

If I were you and half so vain, Amidst my folly I would pause To see how dull and light a fool I was myself. I don't, because— (And here I heave a utying sigh) I am not you; I'm only I.

If I were you, no selfish care Should chare my cheery smile away;
I'd scatter round me hove and hope;
I'd do a kindeess every day,
But here again I gard it frue
That I am I, and you are you.

I would not be so very quick.
To take offense, if I were you;
I would restect inyesf, at least,
Whatever others say or do.
Alse! can no one tell inge why
I am not you instead of 17

In short, if I were only you.

And could forget that I was I,

I think that hithe cherub wings

Would sprout upon me, by and by,

— Userge M. Murphy in St. Nicholas.

Now and Then. When I was ten and she was eight, Ah me, how I did scorn her? She used to smile across the gate When I was ten and she was circle; But I passed 19 in lordly state And quickly struct the corner. When I was ten and she was circle; A bus, how I did scorn her?

Now she is cirhicen. I a score, Her ways to me are chilling. In fact, I lear I am a bone. Any whels eighteen. I a score. She sinkers are oss the sate no more, Though I am more than willing. Now she is eighteen. I a score, her ways to me are chilling. — ham I betseen to flucket.

Afternoon Tea.

There's no harm in a cup of tea.
But ah, dear me!
When i look up above the cup
Two eyes lace. Within the cup are grounds of tea, Alas for me; With the eyes no ground their has of hope for me.

When ton's accomp'nied in this wise
By airen's eyes,
Arcapt the cut, but don't look up,
There danger ites.

Uncountable Numbers Gather at the Roosting-Places at Night.

"Do you see those crows flying ove .. head?" asked the ornithological sharp, pointing to the heavens. The Washington Star contributor turned his gaze skyward and beheld flock after flock of the birds coming from the east and winging their way across the city of "They are coming home to bed at their great roost in Arlington. That is one of the great perching places for crows in the the great perching places for crows in the country, you know. Another such is found near Baltimore, about four miles out from the city, and there are others still near St. Louis, at Lanca-ter. Pa., in Jessamine County. Kentucky, and at Reedy Island, in the Susquehanna.

A big one also is in Nebraska—I can't quite remember where—and there are more in various parts of the country not yet heard from though all are within the limits of a belt 100 miles north and 100 limits of a belt 100 miles north and 100 niles south of a line that might be drawn serous the continent through Washington and St. Louis." How many crows roost at Arling-

People usually say millions, but there is a natural tendency to exagger-ate in such matters. I should say that there were fewer than 500,000. It takes a goodly number of crows to make that many.

"You see, it is rather difficult to count them. You can't very well reckon them while they are flying, and if you approach them at night they will be frightened and leave precipitately. All sorts of methods have been tried, even to firing a cannon loaded with bird-shot into the roost with a view to picking up the dead within the range of fire and basing a calculation upon

The Johns Hopkins expert who inves tiga'ed the Baltimore roost awhile ago de-termined that there were between 250,000 and 500,000 crows there by counting small

The Finkerton Detective Agency, which was and 500,000 crows there by counting small of sexual states and solid county of this estimate came in with the guess he had to make at the number of birds on each tree. Some time photographs will be taken of the ro st at Arlington at night by flash lights, which would seem to be the conty promising plan."

"Why do the birds gray eyes. Her hair is turning gray, but her hands and her throat have the pietty plumpness of youth.

President Diaz, of Mexico, looks the Indian that he is a man of medium height, stout, with a very dark face. There is always a smile on his face, which gives him a prepossessing appearance.

ATHLETES IN REPO32.

The Finkerton Detective Agency, which was and 500,000 corows there by counting small of the weak point of his extinate came in with the guess he had to make at the number of birds on each tree. Some time photographs will be taken of the ro st at Arlington at night by flash lights, which would seem to be the cnip promising plan."

"Why do the bridge grather in such a great assemblage for roosting?"

"That is one thing that nobody has ever been able to find out. It has been suggested that in some time long ago they had some object in doing so which no longer exists, and that the habit thus formed has been perpetuated through the formed ha

At all events, the custom of the crows of the compass towards their feeding grounds, which often are a hundred les distant.

Those birds you see flying overhead

the big bare hill a mile away, where they file big bare into a mice away, where they fill their stomachs as much fuller as is possible with gravel, for the purpose of digestion during sleep. Then they go to perch on the trees by countless myriads. "Often crows will reach their perching "Often crows will reach their perching places so exhausted by their long journeys from the feeding grounds as to fall upon the ground helpless, so that they can be easily picked up. But not under the most difficult circumstances will they fail to undertake the homeward trip, though very likely, as is the case to-day, they must travel under difficulties against a strong head wind."

"Where does the crow belong?"
"All over this country the bird is found, save only in certain and regions found, save only in certain and regions of the Southwest. It has two migrations of the Southwest. It has two migrations yearly, going north in Summer and south in Winter; but these movements are not so marked as in the case of other feathered species.

"I have seen during the Winter in Patagonia birds that are familiar Summer residents of New England. Crows, however, have merely a general tendency south and north, those which leave the roost here about the middle of April being succeeded by another batch from the lower tier of States. Of the crow family in this country there are the raven. the common crow, the fish crow, the mag-ple and the jay."

Postmaster—The letter is too heavy; country woman-Why, that will make it heavier still

Wolff's ACME Blacking

Ethei-How restless and full of mover that actress is! hat actress is!

Mand—You would be full of movement is f you had on as many real diamonds as also and were trying to make them spark! BIK- BOW Branches and Expensery are averted during Hidly

For the most popular Amateur Baseball Club in Now York, New Jersey or Connecticut.

HER BUNDAY-SCHOOL IS-

ADDERSS-SIGNED-

Those desirons of roting in this contest nust fill out the above ballot and inclose it in an envelope addressed to the Popular Baseball Club Editor, EVENING WORLD, P. O. box 2.354. New York City.

LOCATED AT-

SIGNED-

SIX DAYS MORE FOR ROOTERS.

No Votes for the Baseball Banner to Be Printed After June 20.

Amateur Baseball Contest will be printed six days more and all voters are urged to send in their votes at the carliest possible moment. The Grimes B. B. C. continues to lead to day with 18,032, while the Farmers hold

20, when the ballot will be printed for the Little Lamont the Biggest Surface in order that there may be no delay in announcing the count. Voters are requested not to fold their balis to leave the roost at daybreak or soon after every morning. Sundays included, lots and are again reminded to fill out the and take flight in flocks to all the points same with their complete names and addresses as well as the full name and location (or secretary a address) of their favorite club. Defective ballots cannot be counted. Caution should be used, in sending ballots by mail, that the postage is fully prepaid, otherwise ballots may not reach their des-the Chesapeake and its tributaries, which and admirable forage in Winter, the water continually washing up what they most enjoy—small crabs, shrimps, shell fish, dead fish and all such things, not to mention slugs and bugs and soft clams, &c.

"With their stomachs crammed full of delicacies like these they are going home to the roost, where they will meet the flocks returning from up the Potomac and down the Potomac, as well as from the West and elsewhere.

"Por all that any one can tell the flocks may take turns in visiting this feeding ground and that; but it would be rather difficult to prove that such was the case, owing to the very striking likeness that any one crow bears to every other.

"Arriving near the roosting-place about mightfall, they gather about in crowds, for a prayer-meeting, possibly, before going to bed. I have myself seen at such a time of day as many as 100,000 on Analostan Island alone.

"Finally, as if at a given signal, they all rise up with a whirr and flock over to the big bare hill a mile away, where they fill their stomachs as much fuller as is castiletted. The content of the roosting away where they fill their stomachs as much fuller as is Castiletted. The root and the root to the root of the

Clio Jr. B. B. C., 153 Broome at Columbias, Jersey City Heights. Earlstatt Jr. Carlstatt, N J. Dauntiess, Sid et and 3d sve. In Vinne Press BB, C., 12 Lafayette pi, N. Y.

Eurekas, transmar School 3.
Eurekas, transmar School 3.
Eurekas, Catholie Protestory, N. V.
Lie Hil. C., 70 Pulton at, Brooklyn, Ercelson Athletic B. B. C., Union Hill,
Epsin, March 1988, 1988, 1988, 1988, 1988, 1988, 1 Control of the Contro ave, Brooklyn.
Golden Star Juniors, Atlantic ave, Brook-ign.

Hackett, Carhart & Co., New York
Hill Brothers, 564 Broadway.
Hazard, hazard & Co., 24th st. and Broadway.
Irving BH. U., 177th at and 4th ave. Tre-

Irving BB. U., 177th at and sin ave, Tremont.

Jewellers' Brotherhood. Maiden lane Kenematons, '44 W 10th at.

La Boutillier Bres. St. W 25d at.

Lattie & Hamilton. St. W 25d at.

Minerras. S. W 25d at.

Marions. Tompkinsville. S. I.

Maystics. Helleville. N. J.

Maple S B C. Brooklyn. E. D.

Mannattan L. W 10th at and Juney. N. Y.

Madison B. B. U. 116th at and Park ava

Minute Man. 210 Seventesath at. Bkyn.

Most Hagen. 57th at. and 10th ave.

Minute Haseball Unit. 250 Wess 17th a.

Majostics. Harlen.

Mannattan L. S. Oth ava.

Malvoods. Brooklyn.

N. Y. A. N. J. Talesphane. 14 Hosenum st. Ikin

N. Y. Telegraphers' H. B. U., 32' Unrelands S. Y. Associaled Frees. 11th Broadway. True Enough.

Methodis, Brooklym. 14 Bosrum at Rkin N. Y. & N. Thiographers' R. B. C., 52 Corestinuity of the Control of the

The Cause of It.

[From Smith, Gray & Co.'s Manthly.]

623

Mrs. Meersman Has Two Men Ar-arraigned in the Jefferson Market Police Court this morning, Mrs. Meersman told

For the most popular female Sunday-School Teacher in New York, New Jersey or Connecticut. MY FAVORITE IS-

ADDRESS-

State of New York or New Jersey or connectiont.

Neither sect nor creed will be considered in this contest. It is open to all female Sunday-school teachers of every creed.

The votor must use the ballot printed in The Evenino World, enting it out and writing in the blank spaces the name of the votor's favorite Sunday-school teacher, designating her Sunday-school and its location, and signing the ballot with the name and address of the votor.

Ballots must be inclosed in envelopes and addressed to the "Teacher Editor, Evenino World, 32 Park Row, New York."

BROADWAY IN THE GRIDIRON

Railway King in Town.

Col. Dan Lamont and his Whitney-Elkin syndicate have just made another important ove in their scheme to gobble up the New York surface railroads.

In other words, the little crosstown road known as the Houston, West Street and Pavonia Ferry Railroad Company, whose capi tal stock is only $250,000, has obtained lease for an indefinite period of the Broadway and Seventh Avenue Railroad Company and all its branches, which represents a capital stock of $2,100,000.

Col. Lamont is President of the Houston street line and of several other small companies already corralled by the syndicate The latest acquisition will doubtless give the combination an immense boom and materially assist it in carrying out its great scheme for gridironing Gotham with

This latest deal has been under negotia tion for some time, so that its final consum town.

The virtual head of the Broadway Railroad was Mr. Whitney himself, and among those interested with him were Peter A. B. Widener and William L. Elkina, members of the Philladelphia branch of the syndicate, so that the present lease is merely, in effect, the consolidation of the various interests of the syndicate under a single management, with consolidation of the various interests of the syndicate under a single management, with Col. Lamont at its head.

According to the terms of the agreement, the Houston and West Street Company will increase its capital stock immediately to $5,000,000, and assume all the obligations of the Broadway line, which was already leavily encumbered by the guaranteeing leavily encumbered by the guaranteeing of the brincipal and interest of several other leavily encumbered by the cuaranteeing l and Seventh Avenue Railroad companies were held peaterlay, at which a large major. The centiment in favor of the lease of the stock in both companies was voted upon. The centiment in favor of the lease of the stock in both companies was voted upon. The centiment in favor of the lease of the stock in both companies to be companied by the syndicate will reach out for some more of the bog corporations.

The lease was respect financial arrangement necessary to accomplish and facilitate the change of motive power on the Broadway road, and that the coat of this tate the change of motive power on the Broadway road, and that the coat of this tate the change of motive power on the Broadway road, and that the coat of this tate the change of motive power on the Broadway road, and that the coat of this tate the change of motive power on the Broadway road, and that the coat of this tate the change of motive power on the Broadway road, and that the coat of this tate the change of motive power on the Broadway road, and that the coat of this tate the change of motive power on the Broadway road, and that the coat of this tate the change of motive power on the Broadway road, and that the coat of this tate the change of motive power on the Broadway road, and that the coat of this tate the change of motive power on the Broadway road, and the coat of this tate the change of motive power on the Broadway road, and the coat of this tate the change of motive power on the Broadway road, and the coat of this tate that the stockholders in cellular that the coat of this tate that time were williary. Only Previous the provenent Company, which was controlled by ex. Secretary Whitney, Ch. O. H. Farne, interesting the believes the coat of the Christian of the Company was the believes the coat of the Christian 229

HER $300 BRACELET STOL EN.

rested for the Theft. When Emil Manas and Joseph Stuyck were how they had called at her house at 0 o'clock Thursday morning and asked to see Mr. Mesraman. She left them alone in a room while she sent for her hashand, and upon ber return found that a trunk had been broken open a $100 tracelet taken and the men had wantaked. They were head for

MISS M'BEE MADE VERY HAPPY.

A SEQUEL TO TWO YEARS OF A MISERABLE LIFE.

Miss McBre Lives in the Pretty Fillage of Englewood-She Suffered with Catarrh and Drs. Copeland & Blate

"I have been made very happy after being minorable for two years," was what Miss Maggin McBee said to the writer during a recent interview. "I have had a miserable life of it for the past two years," continued Miss McBee, "It was caused by a throat and head difficulty, which threatened serious results if it was left to continue its course. "No one would betieve how much I saffered. My nose was blocked up, my oyes a wellen, my throat serie and just fell of munus which dropped into it from the back part of my head.

MISS MAGGIE MOBER, ENGLEWOOD, N. J. Conditions:

Conditions:

The Evening World's gift of Estey's best make plane in any wood desired by the recipient will be awarded to the most popular female Sunday-school teacher.

She must teach in a Sunday-school in the State of New York or New Jersey or Connectiont.

Neither sect nor creed will be considered in this connect the tip open and the sunday sunday sunday. She would form the sunday su

DOCTORS

COPELAND & BLAIR 92 5th Ave., near 14th St.;

147 W.42d St., near Broadway; 149 PIERREPONT ST., where they treat with success all curable cases. Specialties—Onlarrh and all diseases of the Zyr, Far. Throat and Lungs, Chronic Diseases. Address all mail to 92 lets ave. New York City. If you live far sway write for Symptom Sheet. Office Hours—6 to 11.30 A. M., 1 to 4 P.M., 7 to 9 P.M.; Sundays, Bt o 11.30 A. M. and 1 to 4 P.M.

IMPERATIVE REDUCTION.

UNHEARD-OF PRICES.

IT BECOMING NECESSARY FOR US TO CLOSE OUT ALL OLD STOCK, WE SHALL OFFER FOR A SHORT TIME GREAT BAB-GAINS IN ALL KINDS OF FURNITURE. FOR INSTANCE, WILL SELL, $100 Parior Suita, finely upholatered, at $70. $40 Bedroom Suits, strong and handsome, at $28. 8:50 Hall Stands, new and very neat, at 825. $24 Chiffeniers, new designs, at $19.

AND A VAST ASSORTMENT OF THE MOST ARTISTIC AND FASHIUNABLE FURNITURE OUR EXCLUSIVE DESIGN AND MANUFAC-TURE,

4 o'clock this morning. There were three ladies in the party.

There were three ladies in the party.

The streets were a little muddy, but nonof the party backed out on account of it a weather. The route lat through Elizabe no Westhold, Plannield, Bound Brook, Sond with, Hopewell and Trenton, where din was to be served. They expected to reBristol at 4 o clock this afternoon and Phindishins at 7 p. s.

After breakfast at 4 o clock to morrow morning at the Continental Hotel, a run will be taken around the suburbs of Philadelphia, and in the afternoon the party will return on special cars to New York.

COLD | How the Icemen Cheat You on STEAL THE SUNDAY WORLD.

disease this medicine is mesting with unequalled success. Its cleanating, partiying, effallating and building-up properties expel every trace of intrust the blood and impart health to every party from the blood and impart health to every party of the system. Read this: "Four years ago my little con Ellery became blood-postoned by impure virus in variation." The City Transparer "Four years ago my little con Ellery tecame hisod-potanoned by impure virus in vaccination. It is arm swelled terribly, causaity great agony; thysicians sagilthe arm must be amputated, and even then his recovery would be doubtful. One day I read about a blood purifier, new to me, and was surprised to learn that it was prepared by C. I. Hood, with whom I used to go to bechoo in Chilese, the his recovery would be considered by the constant of the constant of the same prepared by C. I. Hood, with whom I used to go to bechoo in Chilese, Vt. I decided to have my boy try Hood's Van B. Sizuran. City Treasurer, Lowell, Mana.

Remarkable Cures